Read What You Like

NoveList

Library Staff Quick Start Guide:
Helping Readers Using the New NoveList

NoveList is launching a completely redesigned experience on June 16. This trusted reading recommendation resource will be easier to use for everyone, including patrons. Buzzy books, new titles, trending series, and an interactive (and fun) book matchmaking tool (and more!) will be at your fingertips. And the modern, mobile-friendly and accessible design means you can use NoveList in the stacks, at your desk, or anywhere you want.

Be sure to remind patrons that they can use NoveList, too!

Need more help?
Scan this QR code.

Here are some ways the new NoveList is ready to help. Just head to the home page to get started.

When this:

Try this:

When this:		Try this:
When a reader asks you for a book they heard about in the media or a celebrity's book club pick	→	Books with Buzz
When you want to create a quick book display or reading lists, or a reader is looking for suggestions for books on a theme, topic, or genre	→	Curated Lists
When you are trying to help a reader find a book based on their tastes, mood, and preferences	→	Explore Titles by Story Element
When you want to keep up with the newest releases in a popular series	→	New Series Titles
When a reader wants a book that's like one they've enjoyed	→	Title read-alikes, Author read-alikes, and Audiobook listen-alikes
When you need ideas for audiobooks, award winners, and other popular searches	→	Quick Links
When a reader wants suggestions for a specific category of a genre (think Regency romances)	→	Discover NoveList then Genres
When you want to feel more confident helping a reader find books and authors in a specific genre	→	Genre guides
When a reader tells you they're in the mood for a feel-good story (or any other mood)	→	Discover NoveList and Appeal Factors
When you or a reader want to get notified when new titles are added from a favorite author, genre, subject, and more	→	How do I? and Set up search alerts

NoveList

Helping people read what they like for more than 30 years.