History
Reference Source

Full-text U.S. and world history content covering the earliest civilizations through the 21st century

Available through Explora

History Reference Source offers a variety of information resources and productivity tools to support students and educators in meeting curriculum goals.

Quality Content

- Nearly 2,000 reference e-books from top educational publishers and university presses

- More than 570,000 full-text records from reliable sources including peer-reviewed journals, reference books, periodicals and more

- More than 56,000 primary source documents and speeches

- More than 42,000 biographies of historical figures

- Full text and selective content from more than 145 leading history journals, including the complete backfiles of the most popular history magazine, History Today

- Coming Soon: More than 42,000 images

Support for Students and Educators

- Google Drive, Google Classroom and Microsoft OneDrive integration for easy saving and sharing of content

- Advanced search options as well as easy-to-browse topic categories, including Events and Movements, Military History, and Civics and Government

- Text-to-Speech for HTML and PDF articles to assist struggling readers, auditory learners and those developing English-language proficiency

- Reading measures (Lexile® Measures) to address text complexity requirements

- Citation tool to help students format references

- Free LTI v1.3-certified faculty apps for Schoology, Canvas, Blackboard, Moodle and Desire2Learn (D2L) enabling teachers to search for EBSCO content and embed links to full text, all from within their learning management system (LMS)