

NoveList is for everyone,
from patrons to pros.

Brought to you by the book experts at NoveList.

The most trusted book recommendation database

For three decades now, libraries have depended on NoveList Plus to provide great reading recommendations. NoveList Plus describes thousands of titles and is extensively tagged by experts, making searches easy and resulting in the best reading suggestions available.

What makes NoveList Plus special?

NoveList Plus allows your library to stand out by helping readers find the books that perfectly match their reading preferences and moods. We identify unique story elements that make our recommendations relevant and exciting. Readers will also find additional information, such as series order and unique author descriptions.

What makes a good recommendation?

A good reading recommendation is built on trust. NoveList Plus will tell you why we recommend a book, author, or series. We personally sign our handwritten recommendations because we want you to know the people behind them. This trust, in combination with unique story elements like appeal, genre, and theme, makes our book recommendations truly outstanding.
