

Australia/New Zealand Points of View Reference Source

Offering a balanced perspective on current events and issues

Australia/New Zealand Points of View Reference Source provides rich, diverse content to help students assess and construct persuasive arguments and essays, better understand controversial issues, and develop analytical thinking skills.

Resources for Critical Analysis

Each of the database's 300+ topics contains an overview, point and counterpoint (opposing argument) as well as a Guide to Critical Analysis. The database includes more than 1,250 main essays, leading political magazines from all sides of the political spectrum, newspapers, radio and television news transcripts, primary source documents and reference books.

Support for Students and Educators

Australia/New Zealand Points of View Reference Source content supports curriculum standards that ask students to analyse informational texts and hone their critical thinking skills. Other benefits include:

- Google Classroom, Google Drive and Microsoft OneDrive integrations to simplify saving and sharing of content
- Text-to-Speech for HTML and PDF articles to assist struggling readers, auditory learners and those developing English-language proficiency
- Citation tool to help students format references
- Supplementary research guides for writing position papers, developing arguments and debating
- Ability for educators to search for EBSCO content and embed links to full text, all from within their learning management system (Schoolology, Blackboard, Canvas, Moodle, Desire2Learn).

Newest topics include:

- AI-Generated Art
- Anti-Corruption in Australia
- Gene Editing
- Housing Affordability Crisis
- New Zealand as a Republic
- Press Freedom
- Supply Chain
- Ukraine
- War Crimes
- Water Infrastructure in New Zealand
- Wind Power
- Women in Politics
- Wrongful Conviction