*Open up a new world
of literature research*

EBSCO

Essential Literary Works

Topic coverage reaches beyond the Western canon to deliver more of the most studied works and contemporary literature than any other resource.

- Delivers critical primary and secondary sources.
- Supports research of global poetry, fiction, plays, and creative nonfiction worldwide.
- Includes coverage beyond the classics including contemporary works by diverse writers.

Effortless Integration

LitBase integrates easily with MLA International Bibliography with Full Text to offer an even broader scope of resources to researchers.

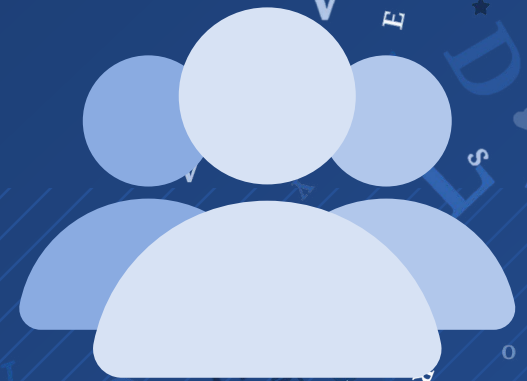

- More than 600 journals from LitBase complement the collection of 1,100+ journals in MLA International Bibliography with Full Text.
- Together, the two resources deliver an extensive collection of journals with very little overlap of content.

Diverse Authors

Underrepresented authors and underserved groups are celebrated in LitBase. Highlighting different voices is an essential element of literature research.

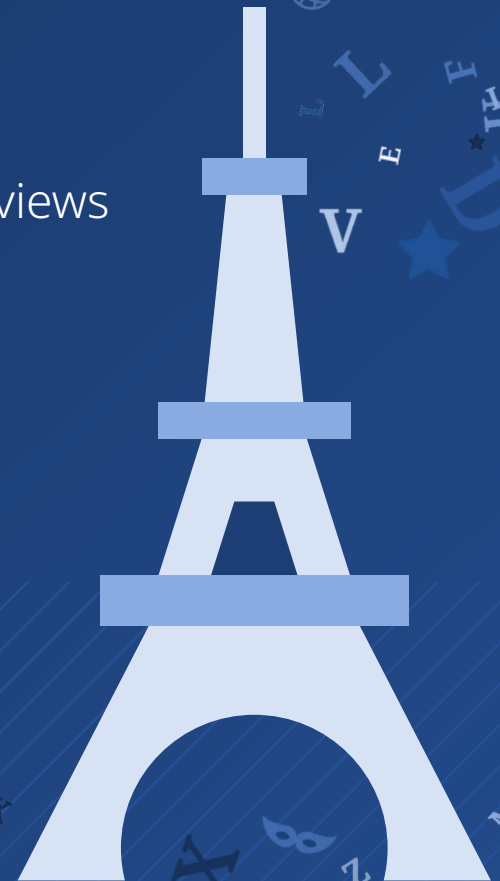

- Black writers
- LGBTQ+ writers
- Latiné American writers
- Writers from underserved and indigenous populations in the U.S.
- Underrepresented authors worldwide
